

Speaker: Ralph Howard (USC)

Title: Mean chord lengths and areas of closed curves

Abstract: Recently Mohammad Ghomi and Donald Sampson of Georgia Tech have shown that the average length of antipodal chords of a simple closed curve in the plane has the lower bound $2A/L$ where L and A are length and enclosed area of C . An exposition of their proof will be given.