

Speaker: George Androulakis (USC)

Title: What is more basic? The measure or the integral?

Abstract: When we teach measure theory we usually define first the measure and then the integral. This is not the only way for teaching measure theory and in this talk we will describe the opposite way. This talk will be accessible to every graduate student; those who had Math 704 and those who did not have. So everybody is encouraged to come.